JOHN E. NOTTINGHAM, JR., ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Franktown, Va.

Practices in all the courts on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. Will be at Eastville and Accoma-C. H first day of every court and at Eastville every Wednesday.

S. JAMES TURLINGTON. Attorney-at-Law.

days and Court Days. Will practice in the courts of Acco mac and Northampton Counties

Otho F. Mears. G. Walter Mapp. MEARS & MAPP,

Attorneys-at-Law, Offices:-Eastville, Northampton Co. and Accomack C. H.

Practice in all courts on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

U. Q. STURGIS, -Attorney-at-Law.OFFICES-Accomac C. H., Onancock and Eastville.

Practices in all courts on Eastern Shore. Ban .. ruptey cases a specialty.

Attorney-at-Law, Accomac C. H., Va. Will practice in all courts of Acco mac and Northampton counties.

JOHN S. PARSONS,

T. B. QUINBY, Attorney-at-Law Office-Accomac C. H. Telephone connection

Prompt attention to all business. JOHN R. REW,

-Attorney-at-Law. -

Offices:-Accomac C. H. and Parksley. Will be at Court House every W nesday and court days.

THOS. W. RUSSELL, Attorney-at-Law, Accomac C. H., Va. Practices in the courts of Accomac

N. B. Wescott. B. T. Gunter, Jr. WESCOTT & GUNTER, and Northampton counties.

Atterneys-at-Law, Offices-Accomac C. H., and at home of N. B. Wescott, near Mappsburg Practice in all courts on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. L. FLOYD NOCK. Attorney-at-Law and Notary Public, Ассошас С. Н., Va.

Will practice in all courts of Acco mac and Northampton counties.

Prompt attention to all business. JAMES H. FLETCHER, JR.,

Attorney-at-Law, c C. H., Va mac and Northampton counties.

STEWART K. POWELL Attorney-at-Law,

Office-Onancock, Va. Wednesday and court days.

DR. L. J. HARMANSON, - DENTIST .-Onaucock, Va.

Office hours from 9 a. m., to 5 p. m.

DR. THOS. B. LEATHERBURY,

DENTIST, -Onancock, Va.-

Office hours from 9 a. m., to 5 p. m. DR. E. U. POTTER,

-DENTIST .-

Will be at Bloxom Tuesday and Wednesday, and at Marsh Market Friday of second week in each month for the practice of his pro-

FRED E. RUEDIGER. --- COUNTY -: O:- SURVEYOR, Chincoteague, Va. We guarantee permanent cures without use of the ni fe in CANCER and all CHRO the SORES. No money to be paid until patonic are cured. Our Medical and Surgical Denoments are second to none, being compospart a corps of first-class Physicians. Thoroughly equipped with latest and best instruments offers his services to citizens of Accomac.

Will meet all engagements promptly Office of L. F. J. WILSON, Stockton Ave., Greenbackville, Va. Notary Public, General Convey-ancer and Special Collector of Claims. Special attention paid to the Adjust-Special attention paid to the Adjustment of Foreign and other Claims. Homestead Deeds and Deeds of Trust made a specialty. Correspondence solicited.

> DR. S. B. WARD, DENTIST, -Belle Haven, Va.-

Bridge and Crown work a specialty.

WM. P/ BELL & CO., ACCOMACK C. H., VA.,

DRUGGISTS

A full line of

DRUGS, OILS,

PAINTS, SEEDS, &C.,

WE SHOULD BE INTERESTED IN THEM, SAYS DR. TALMAGE.

The Busybody Has a Mission to Per-Search Out the Miserable and Offer

"A busybody in other men's matters." Things we should sight of a man whose characteristics ed into that man's history?" ious kinds of Pines, Yellow Pine, Spruce Pine and White Pine being the best known kinds. ened by fishing tackle drew this portrait for all subsequent ages, "A busylast but not least, we have the body in other men's matters." That kind of person has been a trou-

know about

Pines etc.

We have in the country var-

Philippines (as soon as we capture Auginaldo and conquer the rest of the Philippinos), but the greatest Pine in America to-day

-Pine Apple Tobacco-

SOLD BY

F. A. Davis & Co.of Balto., Md

You can get Pine Apples ony in season, but you can get

PINE APPLE TOBACCO

all the year around

TRY A COUNSELLOR Cigar.

All Lawyers use them.

150 Farms For Sale

Being the largest real estate handled more real estate than who desire to buy farm lands.

Send for new descriptive price list and map of Peninsula, free.

F. H. DRYDEN,

Pocomoke City, Md.

CANCER, MEDICAL

AND SURGICAL

All Examinations F

We treat no patient,

F. C. KELLAM, General

FRANK G. KELLAM, H. Manager,

est Va.

if so, write a dollar made aurel, Del.,

Stones, Mees on Head and Foot and all conument, Iron Railing

eral, an emetery work in gen-

DAVIS & BRO., Laurel, Del.

LLO D & DRUMMOND, Grangeville; YD SMITH, Pungoteague.

-W. H. PRUITT, Temperanc

E. J. WINDER, Onancocke W. ABDELL, Belle Haven;

d save money.

BRO., Proprietors.

the Hospital.

DAVIS &

For pri

Agents

The Kellam

ranging in prices from

Buy a plug or pound

The undersigned offers for without concentrating all his energies upon that one thing? All those ves sale 150 Farms, situated on the try to do many things go to piecewho Practices in all the courts of Acco- Eastern Shore of Maryland and ther as to their health or their for sel- I know, have failed honestly. Virginia, suited for all purposes, They go on until they pay 10 certune. the dollar or pay their body puts on grave. We cannot manage thato the of others and keep our owe affairs prosperous. While we are a affairs will practice in all the courts of secomac and Northampton counties. $500.00 to $25,000 prosperous. While we are inquiring how precarious is the bus inquiring other merchant and find fness of another merchant and fness of anot many notes he has unging out how soon be will probably spaid and how make an assignment de wound up or dealer on the Shore, and having iff's hammer smite hier hear the sheraffairs are getting s counter our own any other, places us in position | dangered. While mixed up and enour neighbor for b we are criticising to be of real service to those Hospital. and sat down at their table and open ed the book containing a full statement of their affairs to see if they were in peril of being caught in a simiuseful they are lenient with others kil' us yet. and disposed to say: "Wait until we cannot believe that charge made who wishes everybody well soon demagainst that man or woman until we onstrates his disposition in his looks.

guess it is a lie." World's Worst Side. much to blame as we suppose. It is "This is one of my princes. which would have flung any one of us, mire him. Congratulate him." The world gives only one side of the have loaned did it for the advantage to find something wrong in character who make moral simpwreck would do not the courage to say "No."

Furthermore, we make ourselves a disgusting spectacle when we become busybodies. What a diabolical enterprise those undertake who are ever point in the round of his chin it were looking for the moral lapse or downfind plenty of game. There have been sewing societies in churches which Attorney-at-Law,
Will be at Accounac C. H. Wednes- SMOKE EXPORT CIGARS | course Dr. Talmage shows how we tore to pieces more reputations than should interest ourselves in the affairs | they made garments for the poor. With course Dr. Talmage shows how we tore to pieces more reputations than of others for their benefit, but never their sarcasms and sly hints and de for their damage; text, I Peter iv, 15, preciation of motives they punctured "A busybody in other men's matters." more good names than they had nee-Human nature is the same in all dles. With their seissors they cut ages. In the second century of the character bias and back stitched every world's existence people had the same evil report they got hold of. Meetings characteristics as people in the nine of boards of directors have sometimes er" or "paragon" type their frailities, teenth century, the only difference be- ruined good business men by inslnuaing that they had the characteristics tions against them. The bud work for a longer time. It was 500 years of may not have been done so much by goodness or 500 years of meanness in- words, for they would be libelous, but stead of goodness or meanness for 40 by a twinkle of the eye or a shrug of or 50 years. Well, Simon Peter, who the shoulder or a sarcastic accentuawas a keen observer of what was go- tion of a word. "Yes, he is all right ng on around him, one day caught when he is sober." "Have you inquirwere severe inspection and blatant crit- know what business he was in before mistakes. Social mistakes. Ecclesicism of the affairs belonging to people he entered this?" "I move that the for whom he had no responsibility, and application be laid on the table until with the hand once browned and hard- some lavestigations now going on are but what a despicable man is the one who started it? Sinin by Interrogation Points There is not an honest man in Washington or New York or any other city who cannot be damaged by such ining agent of infirmities and domestic the wharf. An enemy of the steaminharmony and occurrences that but boat company asked one day, "I wonder if that steamboat is safe?" man who heard the question soon said secret ought to be hauled out into light to his neighbor. "There is some suspicion about the safety of that steamit into the newspapers, that he feels to | boat." And the next one who got hold be a noble achievement to start with, of it said. "There is an impression abroad that there will soon be an accicommunity began to say, "That steamquence we all took the stage rather than risk our lives on the rive but one interrogation in fegard to her the steamboat come went on until the steamboat come was ruined. Precisely so no commy was ruined good enterprise the reputations and good enterprise the reputations and business are and useful styles of business are and useful styles of points. Can clain by interrogation points. Can clain by interrogation so loathsom ou imagine any creature so loathsom as the one who feels higher. All will acknowledge that "Never be tempted under any circumthe scandals abroad are the work of the one whom Peter in the text styles character? all ability, all honesty, all the one whom Peter in the text styles character? all ability, an nonesty, an mired than William Tweed in possesdepravity believe enough in human to be orthodox, I tell you quire all the time we can get to take are dol most of people whom I know care of our own affairs. To carry ourselves through the trencherous straits of this life down the trencherous straits of this life down to the life down the trencherous straits of the life down to the life down of this life demands that we all the the faults! But they are sorry about time keep our hand on the wheel of try epentant on account of it and are d are doing the best they can for their children. All the clerks in stores, so far as I know, are honest, and all pera failure. Who succeeds in anythir sons in official position, city, state or nation, are fulfilling their mission as singers are singing their best songs. the sculptors chiseling their best statues, the painters penciling their best pictures, the ministers preaching their best sermons. Take any audience that assembles in any church, and if there are 500 people assembled I think at least 450 are doing the best they can,

and if there be 5,000 assembled at least 4,500 are doing the best they can. Hunting For Vultures. All people make mistakes - say things that afterwant they are sorry for and miss opportunity of uttering neglecting the feets poor crops we are the right word and doing the right fields or allowir tilization of our own thing. But when they say their prayour own corn, ag the weeds to choke ers at night these defects are sure to extract the m While we are trying to be mentioned somewhere between the eye we fail sote from our neighbor's | name of the Lord, for whose mercy they neam in our under the weight of the plead, and the amen that closes the turbed by 'own eye. Those men dis- supplication. "That has not been my themselves the faults of others are observation," says some one. Well, I trains of 9 the depot at which whole am sorry for you, my brother, my siswhole tradults arrive and from which ter. What an awful crowd you must who havins of faults start. The men have got into! Or, as is more probasucceeded in secular things ble, you are one of the characters that they bous things will tell you that my text sketches. You have not been have no time for hurting out the hunting for partridges and quail, but counts of others. On the way to their for vultures. You have been inlereaging room they may have heard scoplzing the world's faults. You have net a firm in the same line of busi-ess was in trouble, and they said, ought to have been on the uplands. I Sorry, very sorry." But they went in have caught you at last. You are "a busybody in other men's matters." two opinions exactly opposite? I will tell you the reason. It is because there round with mouth and looks full of in- to see the best side, for it is healthier which is an elevated state, while the neglects his home for greater outside in a spirit of disquietude and disgust attractions have themselves so little and mean suspicion, and that is a pull-HINTON, WARRY KELLAM grace in their hearts that no one sus- ing down of our own nature, a disfig-

> The habit I deplore is apt to show other side of that matter. I Itself in the visage. A kindly man

That you... woman who went wrong visage is sour. He may smile, but it is gates glistening with pearl and hodid not the coough wages to keep her a sour smile. There is a sneer in the sannaed by immortals coroneted and easily

AFFAIRS OF OTHERS, from starcing to death. Most people inflation of the nostril. There is a in snowy white. Centuries gave him QUEER MILITARY METHODS. mean curvature to the lip. There is a not a pain. The sun that rose on him right in some exigency, but they have bad look in the eye. The devil of sar- never set. His dominions could not be casm and malevolence and suspicion hes taken possession of him, and you see it as plainly as though from the all that luster and renown and enhair line of the forehead to the lowest written: "Mine! Mine! I, the demon fall of others. As the human race is of the pit, have soured his visage with a most imperfect race, all such hunters my curse. Look at him! He chose a stone house in Bethlehem of our world. ford, almost fresh from a Chinese tour dict of carrion. He gloated over the misdeeds of others. It took all my infernal enginery to make him what camels, and howled at with what trade extension in the far east, had enhe is-'a busybody in other men's mat-

But there is a worthy and Christian way of looking abroad upon others, not for the purpose of bringing them weaknesses or putting in "great prim- cathedral, and redeemed nations, but to offer help, sympathy and rescue. That is Christlike, and be who and put a big plaster of condolence on back to his widowed mother. their lacerations. Such people are never sympathized with, although they "Do you need an infinity of solace. Domestic the midnoon of perfect sight. He could astical mistakes. Political mistakes.

Weep With Woe. There is a public man who has made consummated." It is easy enough to a political mistake from which he will He could not find a man tongue tied. start a suspicion that will never down. never recover. At the next elections he will be put back and put down into tion. He could not see a man with a place of disapproval from which he the puzzled and inquiring look of the will never rise. Just go to that man deaf without giving him capacity to and unroll the scroll of 100 splendid hear the march of life beating on the Americans who, after occupying high drum of the ear. He could not see a piaces of promotion, were relegated to crowd of hungry people, but he made private life and public scorn. Show enough good bread and a surplus that the mandarin replied, "Yes, I think may be his own surgeon until medical him in what glorious company he has required all the baskets. been placed by the anathema of the ballot box.

to weep with their woe. There is a ble to hurl the first missi dent on that steamer." Soon all that merchar who bought at the wrong others. His birth for others. sention or who under change of tar- thronement for others. iff on certain styles of fabric has been steamer was entirely sounded and safe, dropped from affluence into bankrupt ble multitudes I reach week by week, as the one who feels higher. All will acknowledge that "Never be tempted under any circumsion of his stolen millions. Go to that literary man who is starying with a brilliant pen in his right to take them. Oh, ye people back there hand, his literary position lost, his treepentant on account of it and are countries it and are color inflamed groves of plang to do better. About all the man cannactipt the publishing house will Ceylon, and ye Armenians weeping and people I know of are married to not take that among the rejected mante one person best suited. Nearly all awhile were "Paradise Lost" and idolatries of Benares on the Ganges, "Jane Eyre" and Thackeray's "Vanity "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and that Shakespeare was comparatively unknown in well as they can. The most of those appreciation of the greatest of dramawell as they can. The most of those who have failed in business, so far as who have failed in business, so far as anyblic man the cartoons in the time of the cartoons in the cartoons in the time of the cartoons in the cartoon and the cartoon are cartoons in the cartoon are cartoon and the cartoon are cartoon and the cartoon are cart fact that they have it no worse than and illumination and safety and heavmany who have preceded them and that in most cases it is jealousy at success that has caused the assault.

Lift the Fallen. Hear It! The more you go to busying yourselves in other men's matters the better if you have design of offering relief. Search out the quarrels, that you may settle them; the fallen, that you may lift them; the pangs, that you may assuage them. Arm yourself with two bottles of divine medicine, the one a tonic and the other an amesthetic, the latter to scending and ascending immortals soothe and quiet, the former to stimulate, to inspire to sublime action. That man's matters need looking after in this respect. There are 10,000 men of sight of all earthly perturbation inand women who need your help and need it right away. They do not sit down and cry. They make no appeal rest.' for help, but within ten yards of where you sit in church and within ten minutes' walk of your home there are peo ple in enough trouble to make them shrick out with agony if they had not resolved upon suppression.

If you are rightly interested in other men's matters, go to those who are just starting in their occupations or professions and give them a boost. Th two opinions about any one and those old physicians do not want your help. for they are surrounded with more patients than they can attend to, but Gadders about town, with hands in are two sides to every character-the cheer those coung doctors who are pockets and hats set far back on the best side and the worst side. A well counting out their first drops to badisposed man chiefly seeks the best tients who cannot afford to pay. Those are failures now or will be failures. side. The badly disposed seeks chief. old attorneys at the law want no help Christian men and women who go by the worst side. Be ours the desire from you, for they take retainers only terrogation points to find how some for us so to do and stirs admiration. cheer those young attorneys who have aggeration or drinks too much or desire to find the worst side keeps one old merchants have their business so well established that they feel independent of banks, of all changes in tariffs, of all panics, but cheer those pects they have any. In proportion as urement of our own character. I am young merchants who are making people are consecrated and holy and afraid the imperfections of others will their first mistakes in bargain and sale. That old farmer who has 200 acres in best tillage and his barns full of harvested crops and the grain merchant having bought his wheat at high prices before it was reaped needs no sympathy from you, but cheer up that young farmer whose acres are covered with a big mortgage and the drought strikes curve of his nostrils and in the upper them the first year. That builder with half a dozen houses and the owners impatient for occupancy is not to be pitied, but give your sympathy to that mechanic in early acquaintance with hammer and saw and bit and amid all the limitations of a journeyman.

spend their life in such alleviations. not being familiar. But there is one instance that overtops was dying at the lack of medicine, ing to the laws of Kaspar Lavater, his streets yellow with gold and stopped at enlarged, for they had no boundaries vironment of splendors he turned his foot of his throne and on a bleak De- in an address before the Institution of cember night trod his way down to a Mechanical Engineers. Lord Beresbrigands, and thrust with what sharp lances, and hidden in what sepulchrai crypt until the subsequent centuries have tried in vain to tell the story by to disadvantage or advertising their and resounding doxologies, and domed He could not see a woman doubled her, and inflamed muscles relaxed, and ple who have made great mistakes broke up the procession and gave him ed the midnight of total blindness into not see a man down on his mattress him up to health and telling him to shoulder the mattress and walk off but he gave him immediate articula-

He scolded only twice that I remember, once at the hypocrites with elon-There is a man or woman who as gare ed visage and the other time when fallibly been killed by the next. He made a conjugal mistake, and vul. a storul a storul a storul a storul demonstrated this to the mandarin, ture has been put into the sale cage fortunate woman, and the Lord with who replied, "Yes, some men would no with a dove or a lion and limb in the most superb sare, asm that was ever the misfortune. But is your business the most superb sare, asm that was ever the misfortune. But is your business who felt himself entirely commendate the enemy."

At another place he found that the go lucky fellows who do not worry the week with leaded leading the most superb sare, asm that was ever doubt be killed, but the shot would reach the enemy."

At another place he found that the go lucky fellows who do not worry the week with leaded leading the most superb sare, asm that was ever the most superb sare. The most superb sare, asm that was ever the most superb sare, asm that was ever the most superb sare. The most superb sare are the most superb sare, asm that was ever the most superb sare. The most superb sare are the most superb sare as a superb sare are the most superb sare as a superb sare are the most superb sare as a superb sare as a superb sare are the most superb sare are the most superb sare as a superb sare are the most superb sare are the mo time of manufacturer whose old malistry for others. His death for others, carelessness in sponging the gun after quire it.-London Mail. er is very unsafe." And as a conse- chi- ery has been superseded by a new His ascension for others. His en-And now my words are to the invisity

Go to him and recall the names of but yet will never see in this world, started a suspicion the regard to her to business men who lost all but their but whom I expect to meet at the bar Moody, the great evangelist, said to mandario, added that he did not reme at Plainfield, N. J., and he repeated the message for me to others, was, out he believed that it was 50.—Casstances to give up your weekly pubof sermons throughout the world." That solemn charge I will heed as long as I have strength to give in the Sheffield mines of Eugland, and ye in the sheep pastures of Australia, and ye amid the pictured terraces of New Zealand, and ye among the cinnamon and color inflamed groves of over the graves of murdered houseand ye dwellers on the banks of the Fair" and "Vestiges of Creation" and Androscoggin, and the Alabama, and the Mississippi, and the Oregon, and the Shannon, and the Rhine, and the England until Germany acclaimed its Tiber, and the Danube, and the Nile, and the Euphrates, and the Caspian each year. It is putting the truth mild- these carts have lately been made for public man the cartoons in the time of of the earth who have greeted me tutions that which de Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lin- again and again, accept this point lie education of our children is at once coln and James G. Blaine and show all blank offer of everything for nothing. the misinterpreted and pursued the of everything of pardon and comfort and the most cruel." en, "without money and without price." What a gospel for all lands, all zones, all ages! Gospel of sympathy! Gospel of hope! Gospel of emancipation! Gospel of sunlight! Gospel of enthronement! Gospel of eternal victory! Take it, all ye people, until your sins are all pardoned, and your rrows all solaced, and your wrongs all righted and your dying pillow be spread at the foot of a ladder which, though like the one that was let down to Bethel, may be thronged with deshall nevertheless have room enough for you to climb, foot over foot, on rungs of light till you go clear up out to the realm where "the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at

Wit of a Little Page There is a bright little page at the capitol who is undergoing his first experience as a wage earner. He is as sharp as a brier and quick at retort The other night at dinner his sister and his mother were jollying the little fellow about the disposition of his first month's wages. His sister said that on pay day she intended to stick to him closer than a brother. "No." said his mother, "on pay day you will see me walking down the ave nue holding on to his arm"-"Holding on to my leg. you mean. said the boy quick as a flash.-Washington Star.

Congressional Sartorialism. think a Prince Albert was the uniform this felowe blaspheme?" Again in of your house of representatives, don't John vi, 52, we read, "How can this down on the slow moving black clad figures on the floor. Even the gentleman from Arkansas, Mr. Terry, who has worn bluish gray ever since his en trance into the house in 1891, startled his confreres by appearing in a black ing one, and that, too, not without that rig would make an automol most elegant cut and finish.-Washing-

At an entertainment in Edinburgh just as the Boer war broke out the audidience stopped the performance to sing the national anthem. So far this was all right, but more followed. A few hot headed spirits caught sight of a uniform, and the wearer, despite bis Go forth to be a busybody in other protests, was carried shoulder high men's matters, so far as you can help- around the building. When he regaining them out, and help them on. The ed terra firma, some one asked him for the name of his regiment, his uniform Regiment!" was the surprised reply.

"Man, I am the doorkeeper. gain wrang wi' ye a'?'

The One Day Cold Cure.

What Lard Charles Beresford Saw During His Visit to China. How much room still remains in China for the exercise of educational effort was illustrated recently in an interestback and put down his crown at the ing manner by Lord Charles Beresford Wrapped in what plain shawl, and of inspection which had for its immedipursued with what enemies on swift ate object the study of possible British joyed exceptional opportunities for collecting experiences, and one of these to forward the effects of any soldier was the following: In the arsenal at Shanghai he hapsculptured cross, and painted canvas, pened to notice a Krupp gun fitted as soon as the regiments get back to was told that this had been rendered necessary because the Chinese had blown off the original breech plece, and does so wins the appliance of the high she stood straight up. He could not charge of a mandarin he found out overs. Just look abroad for the neet a funeral of a young man, but he how the accident happened. They were using for the 67 ton guns a pow-With der which was quite unsuitable, and splittle on the tip of his finger he turn- he said, "That powder will blow the ded, smiled and answered, "Yes, it does." The last time the gun was fired. helpless with palsy without calling he said, it killed 14 men. So then they breeching at least £50,000.

In another place there was a battery of five 60 ton muzzle loading guns. He the identification card every soldier asked where the front of the battery was. The mandarin pointed in one di- for dressing a wound. This "field rection, but the guns pointed in another. On this being mentioned to him there has been a mistake." The guns assistance arrives or may have the were arranged in echelon, so that the wherewithal on him to bind up the men working one gun would have in- wounds of a chum. demonstrated this to the mandarin. learn that one of the last things "Tom-zine, and he said, "If there were any their property when they no longer refiring, the magazine would be blown up." The mandarin in charge gave him a slap on the back and replied: hasve ever met. The year before last was did fire thes guns, and we blew up the magazine, just as you have said. I sier's Magazit

Destroying the Children.
"Do American med and women realize that in five cities of our country term over 16,000 children between the ages of 8 and 14 taken out of the public schools because their nervous systems were wrecked and their minds were incapable of going on any further in the infernal cramming system which exists today in our schools?" inquires Edward Bok in The Ladies' Home the horn basket is strapped to Journal. "And these 16,000 helpless little wrecks," he continues, "are simservative medical men who have given their lives to the study of children place the number whose health is shatthe most faulty, the most unintelligen

"The Impending Crisis" Man.

Hinton Rowan Helper of North Carolina, author of "The Impending Crisis," is still living quietly in Washington at the age of 70. He published his prophetic work in 1857, and from that time he was an exile from his native state. Mr. Helper differed much from the old northern abolitionists, but was powerful in bringing the crisis he had predicted. Today he would settle the race question by deporting the African. He sald in a recent inter

"I can recommend today what I adrocated in 1857—deportation to Africa. We do not even want the negro in the West India islands. If I could have seen the first slave trader who ever landed on this continent and had the power, I would have killed him and also his captive-the former for his horrible crime of man stealing and the latter for the weakness which made it possible for him to be a slave."-Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

"Fellow" In the Bible. The New England papers are having and exact meaning of the word "fellow." They have dragged forth examples from the four corners of literature, but by some strange freak they dale. The free use of old days allowed and few were under $1,500. him to write in translating Genesis xxxix, 2, "And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a luckle fellow." That looks at least quaint to most of us, but the effect is accentuated when The preponderance of "Prince Al- we come to Mark iv, 41: "What felowe in this congress is a matter of is this? For booth winds and see general comment. "One would almost obey him," and Mark if, 7, "How doth you know," remarked a young lady of felowe give us his fieshhe to eat?" Let decidedly English accent as she looked the people of New England study the early Bibles.-Philadelphia Press. Partridges as Tame as Chickens.

The idea that a partridge could not broadcloth Prince Albert suit of the foundation. The experiment has often balk. It shall not be permitted." been tried without any success. Mr. Joseph Golloway of this city, however, has made an exception to this seem ingly natural rule. He has a number of partridges about 2 years old which is concerned. In 20 years the deer will were hatched on his premises. They be unknown in this state as a game anare perfectly gentle and are as domesticated in their habits as the com mon chicken. They go about with Denver Republican.

the other fowls and in like manner brood and raise their young. demonstrates the possibility of what has always been considered impossible, thinks Mr. Golloway .- Morristown praise!" (Tenn.) Gazette. Searcity of Equestrian Statues. We do not know how many eques trian statues there are, but the numbe much less than one would imagine any other city.-New York Sun.

The names of the British killed and wounded after a battle are ascertained by means of the identification cards which all our soldiers carry sewed up in the left hand corner of their khak

IDENTIFYING THE DEAD.

Precautions Taken by British Sol-

On the card are written the soldier's name, rank, regimental number, to gether with the name and address of his next of kin. The latter are added so that the authorities may know where who gets killed. After an engagement the roll is called their camp. Every man who does not answer is "ticked off" as missing, and search is made for him on the field. As the search parties come across the upon going to a fort upon the river in dead and wounded men they rip open the tunic at the left hand corner and take out the identification card. The eards thus collected are carried I back to camp and banded over to the clerks of the general in command, who breech piece off." The mandarin nod- therefrom compile the casualty lists. After all the cards have been collected the roll is checked again and a note made of those men of whom no trace loaded another gun and fired it, and has been discovered. These are usualthat time 24 men were killed. These ly presumed to have been taken prisonguns must have cost in mounting and ers, but it does not always follow that the assumption is correct

In the corner of this tunic opposite carries a small pad of bandages, etc dressing," as it is called, is added to "Tommy's" equipment in order that he You will probably be surprised to my" does when ordered to the front is gun was actually loaded in the maga- themselves about what will become of

Now the Golf Cart,

If one would be thoroughly up to date when he drives to the golf links, he must now go there in his golfing the carriage makers have turned out The cart is a four wheeled affair and looks like a dogcart or a game cart The body has one of those moderately high, boxlike bodies, with a concave curve at the back, the whole made of solid wood instead of being perforated with holes, as is done with the game carts, originally intended to take gamecocks to the pits and through which perforations air was admitted to the fowls, or slatted, as are the dog carts, the object in this instance being to admit Jight and air to the dogs.

A fellow's boundle of golf clubs needs neither light not air, and so they are carried in a basket strapped diagonally across the rear of to. coach. One of these traps was shown ply the children we know about. Con- sioned some comment among people who were pretty well up on carriages trap was one that was sent out of the tered by overstudy at more than 50,000 ring early in the game. A number of Amateur Sign Painters.

Why will some amateur sign writer practice their badly learned art upon a public that only passes by to sneer? On a church up Woodward avenue is this sign in gold on the bulletin board: "Devine Service at 10:20 Sundy Morn ings."

in a drug store window: "Bell Jones Breath Purfume Postively the Best." But here is one you may see any day well out on Lafayette avenue: "Blank's Shoes Are the Most Comp

The other day this was read across fortable Made.' Almost as bad as this in the advertisement of a certain talior here in town: "Cloths Called For and Deliver-Overcoats Pressed While You And with half a dozen night schools in the town too!-Detroit Free Press.

Will Be Reimbursed.

Losing the Charleston in Philippine waters will involve a claim against the government by the men and officers of the ship for personal losses sustained by the vessel's sinking. Each man is entitled to be reimbursed for every thing that he lost, it being required that each article, however, shall be a pleasant little battle over the origin | enumerated and its probable value giv en. When the American ships were lost at Apla in the great hurricane of March, 1889, congress reimbursed all the men and officers. Some of the have missed the word as used by Tyn- claims of officers were as high as $2,500

> "Marse Milton, cud yo gimme a few ole meal sacks yo' doan' want?" "What do you want with them, Aunt Hannah? "Ah wants to make dem boys sum coats. Bey hyard sum ob dem tolks at de minstriis say dat sack coats wud be worn dis winter "-Chicago News. A recent police order in Chicago prohibits freak advertising in the streets To one man arrested, dressed as an Irish knight of olden times and bearing a tin shield with an advertisement be tamed has always been a prevail- upon it, a police captain said: "Why, In ten years the elk will be but a memory in Colorado, so far as hunting > imal. Mountain lion hunting will soon do away with those animals also.

A Personal Impression "Of course," said Senator Sorghum, "Dewey is a remarkable man, but"-"You are not going to qualify your

"Well, I admire his courage and all that, but I must say that when a man with his opportunities stands up and refuses to run for office it sets a mighty bad precedent."

The One Day Cold Cure. There are only 15 or 16 in the United Kermott's Chocolates Laxative Quinine cold in the head and sore throat Child take them like candy States. Paris has seven, more than k-pt on hand at lowest prices.

FANCY ARTICLES,

[Copyright; Louis Klopsch, 1900.] WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-In this dis-

ble maker in every country since the world stood. Appointing himself to the work of exploration and detection, he goes forth mischief making. He generally begins by reporting the infelicity discovered. He is the advertisfor him would never have come to the public eye or ear. He feels that the But he must not let it stop. He whispers it to his neighbors, and they in turn whisper it to their neighbors, until the whole town is abezz and ageg down than you can a malaria. It is in the air and on the wing and affort. Taken by itself, it seems of little imhave handled it and each has given it an additional twist it becomes a story in size and shape marvelous. If it can be kept going, after awhile it will be large enough to call the attention of the courts or the presbyteries or con-

"a busybody in other men's matters."

Mission of Kindness. First, notice that such a mission is most undesirable, because we all re- that the one own craft. While, as I shall show you before I get through, we all have a mission of kindness to others, we have no time to waste in doing that which is damnging to others.

There is our worldly calling, which who loaned money he ought not to chiefly observant of defects and glad have some better testimony than that His features may fracture all the laws given by these scandal mongers. I of handsome physiognomy, but God puts into that man's eyes and in the Furthermore, we are incapacitated and lower lip the signature of divine for the supervisal of others because we approval. And you see it at a glance, cannot see all sides of the affair repre. as plainly as though it had been writ-People are generally not so ten all over his face in rose color: never right to do wrong, but there may be alleviations. There may have now with all the benedictions that inarisen a conjunction of circumstances finity can afford. Look at him. Ad-The Slanderer. transaction, and that is always the On the other hand, if one he cynical

Be a Busybody. worst side. That defaulter at the bank about the character of others and world is full of instances of those who of another, not for his own. That the fact is upt to be demonstrated in and eclipses all others. He had lived young man who purioined from his his looks. However regular his feating a palace. Radiant ones waited upemployer and so because his mother tures and though constructed accord on him. He was charloted alor